Description :

About Our Lady of the Lake University:

On the foundation of faith, wisdom and trust in Providence, Our Lady of the Lake University (OLLU) prepares graduates to transform their communities, families and professions.

OLLU, founded in 1895 by the Congregation of Divine Providence, is a coeducational comprehensive institution with an enrollment of more than 3,100 students. With its main residential campus in San Antonio and non-traditional programs in San Antonio, Houston, the Rio Grande Valley (La Feria), and online, OLLU has a presence in two of the largest cities in Texas, the border region, and literally around the world.

The University offers more than 30 undergraduate majors and minors, 14 master's programs and three doctoral programs through its College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business and Leadership, and the College of Professional Studies. OLLU offers classes in daytime, evening, weekend and online formats.

Job Description:

The Department of Leadership Studies seeks a full-time Visiting Assistant Professor for the San Antonio, Texas campus to begin in August 2022. The department has well-established master's and doctoral programs and is seeking a high-energy faculty member who can teach in these programs, supervise doctoral dissertations, and serve on departmental and university committees. In addition to the main campus in San Antonio, the department offers masters and doctoral programs on the Houston and Rio Grande Valley campuses. The leadership programs are structured with a central focus on the mission and charism of the Congregation of Divine Providence to provide access to graduate and post-graduate education to underserved professional adult student populations. The department is seeking a colleague who is committed to excellent teaching, using evidence-based pedagogy, and who is eager to mentor adult learners. Ideal candidates will have general knowledge and skills in organizational effectiveness areas such as, Leadership, Management, Organizational Behavior, and Human Resources. Candidates will be expected to engage in academic research pertaining to these and other related areas. The faculty member will teach primarily master's and doctoral courses in the weekend program and on-line on the San Antonio campus. Travel to other campuses as needed for training and teaching on Saturdays is required and a condition of employment.

Requirements:

- Clear evidence of effective teaching and scholarship.

- Qualified candidates will have obtained a Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership, Organizational Development or related field.

- Minimum of two years graduate level teaching experience and/or relevant corporate experience in management, leadership, or supervisory roles.

- Experience advising masters theses or doctoral dissertations strongly preferred.
