

From ILA's Leadership Jobs Board

<https://www.ILAGlobalNetwork.org/jobs-board/>

CONTINUING TRACK FACULTY POSITION IN ENTREPRENEURIAL LEADERSHIP UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE NEWARK, DELAWARE

The Department of Business Administration and Horn Entrepreneurship at the University of Delaware invite applications for a continuing track Assistant Professor. Candidates for the position must hold a PhD in leadership, entrepreneurship, business or a relevant discipline. Preference will be given to candidates with: long-term interests pertaining to individual and/or entrepreneurial leadership; direct entrepreneurship or intrapreneurship experience; and demonstrated excellence in teaching leadership and entrepreneurship using experiential pedagogy. The anticipated workload split for the position will emphasize teaching (i.e., a 2/3 annual course load). It will also include leadership of the Siegfried Initiative for Entrepreneurial Leadership as well as dedicated time and funding support to maintain an active research and publishing program. The ideal candidate(s) will join a dynamic, entrepreneurial team that has gained national and international recognition for excellence in its youth, social entrepreneurship, undergraduate education and technology commercialization programming.

We are seeking a candidate who understands, and has the potential to improve upon, best practices for leadership and entrepreneurship education, including an emphasis on evidence-based insights/practices, experiential learning and external engagement. We are also seeking an individual who is comfortable working at the fuzzy front end of the innovation process, partnering across disciplines and spanning the boundaries between the University and the broader community.

The University of Delaware combines a rich legacy of innovation with a commitment to undergraduate and graduate education and the creation of new knowledge. The main campus in Newark, Delaware, provides the amenities of a vibrant college town with convenient access to major east coast cities. The Department of Business Administration (BUAD) is part of the Alfred Lerner College of Business & Economics. The department offers degree programs in marketing, management, international business and operations management. The department's faculty were instrumental in incubating Horn Entrepreneurship, which has emerged as the University's creative engine for entrepreneurship education and advancement. Horn Entrepreneurship actively partners with all of the University's Colleges and offers a broad array of academic, student experience, new venture development and specialty (e.g., youth, women and equity-focused) programming – www.udel.edu/horn.

As a continuing track faculty member, the candidate will have the opportunity to gain promotion, take sabbatical leave and enjoy the security of a multi-year appointment. The candidate will also have the unique opportunity to serve as Faculty Director for the Siegfried Initiative, which aims to promote individual freedom and free enterprise through high impact leadership offerings. Qualified candidates should be interested in establishing a long-term career at the University of Delaware. The anticipated start date for the position is Sept 1, 2023. Applications will be reviewed beginning February 1, and accepted until the position is filled. To apply please visit: <https://careers.udel.edu/cw/en-us/job/499327/assistant-professor-continuing-track-entrepreneurship-dept-of-business-administration>

Equal Employment Opportunity

The University of Delaware is an Equal Opportunity Employer which encourages applications from minority group members and women. The University's Notice of Non-Discrimination can be found at <http://www.udel.edu/aboutus/legalnotices.html>.

Employment offers will be conditioned upon successful completion of a criminal background check. A conviction will not necessarily exclude you from employment.