About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 41% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

Western Oregon University invites applications for a full-time Instructional Faculty position in our multi-discipline Organizational Leadership Master's Program housed in the Division of Behavioral Sciences. We are seeking applicants with a background in Organizational Leadership or Industrial Organizational Psychology (with an emphasis in leadership) to contribute to the growth of our Organizational Leadership Master's Program and three certificate programs: An Adaptive Leadership Certificate, an Enabling Leadership Certificate, and an Executive Leadership Certificate. Faculty may also teach related Industrial Organizational core undergraduate courses in the Psychological Sciences Department.

The position duties would entail teaching a broad range of courses in the Organizational Leadership Master's program, teaching occasional undergraduate Industrial Organizational psychology core classes, advising students, and sitting on exit committees. Applicants able to develop courses in their own area of expertise that relate to organizational leadership are encouraged to apply.

Required Qualifications:

- MA/MS or PhD in Organizational Leadership, Industrial Organizational Psychology, or a related field/area of expertise focused on organization development and change (for PhD candidates, ABD considered if degree is completed prior to the start date).

Preferred Qualifications:

- Teaching experience in higher education at the graduate and/or undergraduate level
- Understanding of a broad range of organizational leadership topics
- Ability to build relationships with community partners

- Ability to formulate recruiting strategies and facilitate program development

Required Application materials: You may submit all materials online at <https://wou.edu/hr/employment/employment-application-form-faculty-unclassified-professional-positions/>

1. WOU Employment Application form available here - unclassified/faculty
2. Cover Letter that addresses your qualifications for the position.
3. Resume/CV
4. Unofficial transcripts for the highest degree earned
5. Name and contact information for 3 professional references

Western Oregon University is looking for equity-minded applicants who demonstrate a sensitivity to and appreciation for the complexity of the world. We draw our strength as a community from our variety of backgrounds, abilities, cultural experiences, identities, knowledge domains and means of expression. Women, Black, Indigenous and people of color, veterans, people who identify as LGBTQIA+, and people with disabilities are highly encouraged to apply for this position. All interested individuals are encouraged to apply even if they do not meet every one of the preferred qualifications listed.

Background/Education Check:

A criminal background check will be completed as a condition of employment. Education checks are processed for positions requiring a formal degree as a minimum requirement.
